CMS-Detroit’s all-new Gospel Choir program is open to ages 13 through adults. Singing experience is helpful, but not required. Just bring your voice and a smile!

The choir will learn music ranging from contemporary Gospel and Christian music, to Negro spirituals, hymns and anthems.

Director Jessica Clements says, "We want this group to be a light within our city and region, inspiring people with the uplifting and soulful sounds of Gospel."

A small audition of any song will be required for vocal section placement, as well as a simple "testing of the ear," which includes clapping or singing back a melody or rhythm.

Choir director, music educator and gospel singer Jessica Clements is a winner of the Vickie and Marvin Winans Jr. "SOUL STAR" competition.
