Music Therapy

Music therapists provide treatment for a variety of conditions ranging from stress to severe handicaps. Children with delays or difficulties with speech or motor skills may benefit from music therapy. Special needs that are often effectively treated with music therapy techniques include:

- Those arising from medical illnesses
- Developmental disabilities
- Physical impairments
- Emotional disturbances
- Autism
- Sensory impairments
- Specific learning disabilities
- Aging

Next sessions start January 24, 2012
Sessions are available Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays. Tuition is $255 for 15 weeks or call for Individual Session rates.

Snackin’ with Spartans for Kids!

MSU Detroit Spartan alumni share education and career advice with middle and high school-age CMS-Detroit students. Topics such as how to choose a major, preparing for different career fields and the benefits of music will be explored. Snacks will be provided, as will lots of time for questions! Parents are welcome too! Dates: Jan. 14, Feb. 11, Mar. 10 and May 12, 2012. From 11 am to 12 pm.

Music for the Very Young

Early childhood music education exposes children to many different kinds of music and movement with a fun curriculum proven to enhance brain activity.

Every child is musical. Through musical play, we encourage children’s musical, cognitive, social, and emotional development.

Child/caregiver group sessions help children develop tonal and rhythmic awareness while building skills in the physical, interpersonal, and language domains.
