The MSU Jazz Camp is a residential camp for middle and high school students with intermediate and advance playing experience on their instruments. The program focuses on jazz orchestra and small groups, exposing participants to the many arrangements and composition styles used in jazz. Students will learn applied theory, sight-reading and improvisation. In addition to working with MSU College of Music world-class faculty, students work closely with MSU Jazz Studies student mentors. The students will perform at the Lansing Summer Solstice Jazz Festival (www.eljazzfest.com/) on Friday, 6/22. Deadline: limited spaces are available for currently enrolled MSU Youth Jazz students.

The Aspiring Musicians Program Camp is a day camp for upper elementary and middle school students. This five-day camp provides students an opportunity to perform with other talented students, receive class instruction in instrumental technique, and explore music through musicianship classes. Time spent studying and rehearsing culminates in a concert for parents and friends on Friday afternoon (6/29/12). Camp instructors include faculty members of the MSU Community Music School-Detroit. Deadline for registration: May 31

The MSU Rock Camp Detroit is for teen musicians (ages 12-18) from local middle and high schools with some experience playing guitar, bass, drum set, piano, brass, or singing. The students will join a band, learn the ins and outs of the rock music business, and prepare for a final concert with The Outer Vibe at the Detroit River Days Festival on Saturday, 6/23. Deadline for registration: May 31

CMS-Detroit adult and teen programs are available to individuals of all skill levels, from beginner to advanced. The summer session offers six-weeks of group lessons in teen guitar and adult piano, guitar, strings (violin, viola, cello), and the New Horizons Band. Enrollment is open until classes are full or until the first session begins, whichever occurs first.
