Dr. Suzuki believes that “Man is the son of his environment.” The experience that a workshop has to offer children of all ages is one of family, friends, and music. An event like this is a step toward Dr. Suzuki’s mission.

“Ability can be developed by the living soul.”
Dr. Schinichi Suzuki

Welcome to the MSU Community Music School

Founded in 1993, the Michigan State University (MSU) Community Music School (CMS) is the outreach division of the MSU College of Music. CMS brings music education and music therapy to those of all ages and abilities within the Greater Lansing community. Founded on the belief that music dramatically enhances the quality of life, CMS offers opportunities for the study, appreciation, and therapeutic use of music while nurturing the musical development of all. At CMS, students and therapy clients are brought together with music professionals, who are committed to sharing their extraordinary gifts by offering accessible and affordable music instruction, music therapy, and performance opportunities for all in our community.

We are conveniently located across from the MSU campus (Map and Driving Directions) with plenty of free parking.
