Young Music Explorers is for young children, ages 0-3, who enjoy music are need extra support in the areas of speech and language, motor development, self-expression, and socialization. Participants in the class will engage in instrumental, movement, and singing activities. Music experiences are created based upon specific goals for each child. As the children make music together, non-musical skills are encouraged.

When
Class begins September 9, 2015
Wednesdays, 5:30-6:15 p.m.

Cost
$306 per student (17-week session)

To enroll, please contact the MSU Community Music School at (517) 355-7661.